QUARTERLY ISSUES & PROGRAMS LIST FOR KTVL-TV MEDFORD

Quarter: October-November-December 2012

MAIN / SECONDARY ISSUE DESCRIPTION	TITLE	PROGRAM	START DATE	AIR TIME	RUNS
Consumer Affairs / Recall	Peanut Butter Recall	News	10/1/2012	5p, 6p	4
A New Mexico company is recalling it's peanut, almond and cashew butters along with other peanut based products because of salmonella. Sunland Incorporated sell it's food at Harry and David, Trader Joe's and Target. The Center for Disease Control and Prevention said there are now 30 illnesses in 19 states traced back to the products.
10/05/12: The FDA said a New Mexico plant is to blame for the salmonella outbreak. The plant produces nut butters for Trader Joes and other national chains. Trader Joes peanut butter has been linked to 35 salmonella illnesses across 19 states. Sunland incorporated issued a recall including all products from the plant since March 2010.
Law Enforcement / Drugs	Siskiyou Pot	News	10/1/2012	5p, 6p, 11p	3
About 5000 pot plants were ripped out of the ground during a raid in Etna. The Siskiyou County Sheriff's office busted the grow site. Investigators believe it was run by a cartel. The sheriff said that about half a dozen male suspects took off into rugged terrain during the raid. They are still on the loose and the Sheriff said they could commit more crimes.
Fires / Fire Season	Fire Danger	News	10/1/2012	5a, 6a, 12p, 5p, 6p, 11p	27
The prolonged dry and hot weather is keeping firefighters busy. The Oregon Department of Forestry has crews monitoring old fires and ready to respond to any new ones. Typically by the start of October the fire danger would be dropping to moderate but ODF said it is staying at extreme for at least the next week. Grayback Forestry Firefighters are working twice the number of days than they would in a typical fire season and the season would normally be coming to a close but instead it is still going strong. Grayback is working to keep it's crews on the clock. If things keep up like it has, ODF said it could see it as being one of the latest fire seasons on record in the last decade.
10/9/12: With no rain and warm temperatures sticking around, it could be one of the latest Extreme fire danger seasons on record in the last decade. It has been a very expensive fire season for the west coast and it's not over yet. Firefighters are warning to be careful with open flames and equipment and all restrictions are still in place.
10/10/12: The Forest Service and the BLM has declared the 2012 fire season the worst in 100 years. Oregon hasn't seen as many fires as it usually does, but the fires that have burned were bigger than average. So far this year, the Interagency Wildfire Team has spent about a quarter of a billion dollars fighting flames.
10/15/12: The fire danger in our area is now down to High, dropping from Extreme due to last night's rain. It is the first rain in 83 days. Some restrictions are still in place because of still being in the fire season but the danger may drop even more very soon due to more rain that is in the forecast.
10/16/12: Fire season is over in our area. It ended this morning and the Oregon Department of Forestry is reporting the fire danger level at Low which means that all restrictions have been lifted. This year's fire season started June 20th and lasted 127 days. The average fire season lasts 142 days.
Business / Jobs	Call Center Hiring	News	10/1/2012	6p, 11p, 5a, 6a, 12p	9
A Grants Pass call center is hiring and hoping to fill about 200 open positions. Full-time, part- time and seasonal jobs are all available. The big push is for more employees which is just in time for the upcoming holiday season. The company is holding a job fair this Saturday.
Consumer Affairs / Prices	Gas Prices	News	10/1/2012	5p, 6p, 11p, 5a, 6a, 12p	7
Gas prices are up again in Oregon. The average price for regular is $3.99 per gallon according to Triple A. The increase is up two cents in the last week but still lower than a month ago. Prices are higher in our area in which one can expect to pay about $4.03.
10/5/12: Gas prices are up again in Oregon. The average price for a gallon of regular is now $4.00. That is according to Triple A. The increase is four cents in the last week but it is still lower than a month ago. Here in our area you can expect to pay about $4.00 a gallon.
10/7/12: The national average for a gallon of regular is $3.81. In Oregon it is over $4.00 a gallon. Oregon's average price is $4.06 a gallon. Here in our region, southern Oregon's average is higher at $4.13 for a gallon of regular which is up ten cents from a week ago but is not breaking any records.
10/9/12: Oregon's gas prices are going up again. The state average for a gallon of regular is now $4.07. In our area it is $4.14, which is nine cents higher than last week.

Health / Virus	Meningitis Outbreak	News	10/8/2012	12p, 5p, 6p, 11p	14
The number of people who have died from a meningitis outbreak is rising. The Centers for Disease Control said that eight people have now died from the illness, the lastest being from Tennessee. There have been 105 cases reported. Federal health officials now say that thousands may have been exposed to the potentially fatal disease. Doctors expect the number to grow over the next few weeks due to the fact that the period of time from the inoculation and the onset of symptoms can be prolonged up to a month or longer. The outbreak is being linked to steroid injections for back pain. Health officials said that around 75 medical facilities in 23 states received the contaminated products. California is one of them but Oregon was not on the list. The New England Compounding Center where the steroid was made has voluntarily recalled all of it's other products and has since shut down.
10/10/12: This morning, the death toll related to the meningitis outbreak continut to rise wi at least eleven that have died. The CDC said that more than 100 people in 10 states have gotten sick. Now the company's president is offering words of sympathy to the victims. Yesterday, James De Vita assured the public that the steroid maker has recalled all of the products believed to be contaminated.
The steroid linked to the outbreak were not shipped to any local clinics. State health workers are urging clinics and hospitals to get rid of other products received from the company connected to the outbreak. So far, 119 people have come down with the disease and 11 have died.
10/11/12: Health officials in Idaho are reporting an infection of fungal meningitis which would make it the 12th state affected by the outbreak linked to the tainted steroid injections. The CDC said that 13,000 doses of the drug were administered nationwide since May. There had been 137 people that hve gotten sick and 12 have died.
10/12/12: The government said that 14 people have died and 170 people have been sickened in the meningitis outbreak linked to tainted steroid shots. The CDC said there are still about 2000 people who received the steroid to treat back pain.

Political Process / Measures	Measures	News	10/8/2012	6p, 11p, 5a, 6a, 12p	8
This November, voters will have the opportunity to vote on several issues. Here are two: Measure 15-115 would replace both Jackson and Hawthorne Park pools with the help of $14.5 million in bonds which would cost the average homeowner around $25.00 a year. The pool at Hawthorne Park would be covered and open all year round. It would be four times bigger than the old one with enough space for swimming lessons, competitions and a warm water therapy pool. The new Jackson Pool would be open in the summer and there would be more parking, a slide and some shade. If the measure does pass, The Hawthorne Park Pool would be built by September 2014 and the Jackson Park Pool would be finished in June 2014. Measure 15-112 would allow Jackson County Fire District to replace three of their engines and buy an additional one. Fire crews said that two of them are more than 30 years old and another is 21 years old. The $1.8 million levy would cost the average homeowner around $25.00 a year.
Consumer Affairs / Recall	Honda Recall	News	10/9/2012	5p, 11p	2
Honda is recalling more than 250,000 CRV's. The problem involves an electrical switch on the driver's side door. Experts said it could cause fires and four have been reported to far. The recall affects 2002 through 2006 models.
Community Services / Funding	St Vincent De Paul	News	10/9/2012	6p, 11p	2
Saint Vincent De Paul in Grants Pass is getting some big donations recently. It usually brings in about $2,000 a month, but in August the community donated more than $17,000 and September, more than $10,000. Volunteers said that October is off to a great start too. The extra cash is coming at a time when it is most needed. The non-profit was so short on funds this summer, it was considering closing it's doors but as of now, volunteers have enough money to keep feeding people until February. Volunteers said it takes more than $5,000 a month to run the kitchen. The organization also just got more than $10,000 in grants to pay for kitchen equipment, new floors and an awning.

The Klamath Falls School District is closing Fairview Elementary School at the end of this school year. The superintendent said it will be a good change for the district since it has enough room at other schools to take in the kids. The district is hoping to reassign all the teachers.
Education / Funding	Medford Schools	News	10/10/2012	5p, 6p, 11p	3
There is some controversy tonight over pay raises for Medford school leaders. Some school board members are upset the district's administrators are getting a six and a half percent pay raise without board approval. They said it is going into effect without the board having the option of finding other uses for the money. Board members are now looking at creating a new policy so it doesn't happen again. Meanwhile, district leaders said the raise is a way to make up for other benefits that the administrators are losing.
Law Enforcement / Scams	Home Scams	News	10/10/2012	5p	1
Federal investigators are revealing shocking numbers of crimes against Northern California homeowners. They said that scammers are targeting families on the brink of foreclosure. Those scams are promising help by reducing payments but instead, scammers just take the money and run. In Northern California alone, thousands of victims are with losses totaling more than nine million dollars. Nationwide, 530 defendants have already been charged for schemes. The total number of victims who have come forward so far is 73,000.
Environment / Recycling	Plastic Round-Up	News	10/10/2012	11p	1
The plastic round-up is the public's chance to get rid of all the plastic items cluttering your house, including soft plastics like dry cleaning and grocery bags, bubble wrap and landscape fabric as well as hard plastics like DVD's, CD's, buckets and pet igloos. It will be held October 19th and October 20th from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. at two different locations. The locations are the Jackson County Expo in Central Point and the Ashland Armonny. The fee is five dollars per household.

Community Services / Animal Protection A Cave Junction woman who's accused of hoarding hundreds of animals is now facing more than 40 formal charges. Animal rescue crews found more than 200 animals on her property last month, including peacocks, llamas, miniature horses and dogs. Investigators said that most of the animals were starving and some had broken bones. Crow wasn't home when police showed up and said that she was in the hospital recovering from hip surgery. Crow has served time back in 2009 for animal abuse and neglect. Those charges were misdemeanors. Crow's arraignment is set for October 31st and she faces 23 counts of animal neglect, 17 counts of animal abuse and four counts of prohibited possession of a domestic animal.  11/05/12: The animals rescued from the hoarding case are now up for adoption. All of the animals are now at the Josephine County Animal Shelter.  11/10/2012: Animals seized in a Josephine County hoarding case are going to auction. The county took in 177 miniture horses, these animals will be sold at a public auction on December 8th. The equamore foundation warns buyers that these animals will need virtually the same care as full size horses.  12/8/12: A total of 174 miniature horses that were rescued from an animal neglect case are up for auction today. The Josephine County Sheriff's office discovered the neglected livestock in a Cave Junction home this summer, some of the animals belonged to other people. Buyers included new owners and the animal's previous owners bidding to get their pets back. More than 100 miniature horses were adopted at the auction. Political Process / Voter Registration The Jackson County Clerk's Office said it anticipates more than 1,000 residents will wait until the last minute to register. The County Clerk said presidential elections always get more people to get out and vote especially when the races heat up. As of this morning, more than 119,000 people were registered to vote in Jackson County which is more than the number of people registered to vote in the last presidential election but not quite as many as eight years ago. The best way to register to vote is online. It's the first general election where people can register to vote without stepping foot in the election's office. Registered voters can expect to receive their ballots in the mail around Monday, October 22.  10/18/12: Oregon's Secretary of Sate is reporting that nearly 20,000 people registered to vote online this year. While the deadline has passed to register to vote, people can still change their address online or in person until November 6th. Industry / Timber Senator Ron Wyden wants struggling timber counties to consider raising local taxes to make up for lost federal funding. The idea is part of Wyden's seven point plan that he sent to an advisory board this week. Governor Kitzhaber created the panel last week. It's purpose is to come up with solutions for struggling towns like Josephine county. The new plan will be presented to congress next year. However, one Southern Oregon representative said that it is not something communities will consider. The timber payments used to add 250 million dollars to local economies and Southern Oregon counties are feeling the loss more than the rest of the state. Jackson County / Facilities The old Medford Post Office off of 8th and Ivy is being bought by the county for office spaces but now they might have to rebuild. The building is currently abandoned and graffiti covers the windows and danger signs for asbestos. The county may have to spend more money than they had planned.  10/25/12: When the county bought the building, it said that the plans were to build a parking structure behind the building and remodel the offices to bring them up to seismic code. Now, the plans have changed and instead of remodeling, the county is opting to tear the building down and rebuild. Project leaders said the Health and Human Services Department needed a different layout than the old building provided. Political Process / Measures It turns out that White City is not a city at all but local voters could change that if they pass Measure 15-114 which would incorporate the city. The city would include more than 8,000 residents, cover nearly 3,000 acres and rules and laws would be decided by Jackson County commissioners.	White City Measure	News	10/25/2012	12p, 6p	2
Community Services / Homeless The mission in Klamath Falls has a mission of it's own. It is starting a new campaign to help build a new women's shelter. The shelter would be built across the street from the men's shelter. Plans, permits and potential residents are all lined up for the new shelter but the only thing that is left is the funding. The Klamath Falls Mission wants to help more people and a new shelter would do that, tripling it's housing and doubling the number of people it could feed. The shelter's current kitchen was built in the 1930's. A new shelter would bring the mission into the 21st century with a new kitchen and dining room but it is the rooms for women and children that would make the biggest difference.	Klamath Falls Mission	News	10/25/2012	6p, 11p	2
Jackson County / Taxes Jackson County's real estate slump is showing itself in property tax statements. The value of all properties declined by 34% since 2007. Some owners will pay less in property taxes because of the slump which means school and fire districts are losing revenue due to the loss of that tax money.	Property	News	10/25/2012	6p, 5a, 6a	3
Josephine County / Budget Josephine County's roads are dirtier than normal due to cuts to the public safety system. Annetta Sorenson works for Josephine County Corrections and said that after May's levy failed, the number of community workers dipped even lower. She said the two arms of the criminal justice system was crippled and there just isn't a pool of people needing to do community service. Work crews are now half of what they once were. County crews also maintain parks and brush on Federal forest lands.	JoCo Trash	News	10/25/2012	5p, 6p, 12p, 5a, 6a	7
Law Enforcement / Crime As a result of the recent taxi cab driver murder, some local cab companies are changing their rules this weekend to keep drivers safe. Political Process / Ballots	Grants Pass Ballot	News	10/26/2012	6a, 5p, 6p	3
One voter in Josephine County has become concerned when everyone else in her household received their ballot and she did not. Kim Davis said when she called the county elections office to find out what was going on, she was told the signature on her 2011 ballot did not match the one on her voter registration card which resulted in her vote being rejected and her registration listed as inactive. The county said that this happens frequently and when it does, voters are sent a letter and given up to 10 days after the election to make a correction. Davis said that she never got the letter. The county said it is possible the letter was lost in the mail. The election office also sees other common mistakes like husbands and wives signing each other's ballots and people forgetting to sign at all. Davis's complaint is the first they've received this season.
Environment / Wildlife	Salmon vs Mining	News	10/26/2012	6p	1
Environmentalists are suing the US Forest Service saying it's failing to protect Coho salmon in the Rogue River Basin. The threat is suction dredgers mining for gold. The lawsuit says the dredgers could disrupt the gravel and muddy the water making it harder for the fish to spawn. The rising price of gold and California's ban on suction dredging is creating a rise in dredging in the Rogue Basin.

Smoking and growing marijuana in Oregon is illegal unless you have a medical card. But voters have a chance to change that. If passed, Measure 80 would legalize pot in the state. This means adults over the age of 21 would be able to grow it and smoke it. It however, would not prevent federal raids from occurring. 10/30/12: Measure 80 supporters are saying that they are working to get post-traumatic stress disorder added to the list of conditions to qualify for medical marijuana cards. 11/01/12 6p, 11p Legalizing pot in Oregon, Colorado and Washington could cut into Mexican drug cartel profits by 30% according to a study by the Mexican Competitiveness Institute. Washington and Colorado are facing tight races on the proposal, but Oregon voters are unlikely to pass the measure. 11/06/12 5a, 6a If passes, Measure 80 would allow adults to possess small amounts of pot. The drug would be subject to state regulation and taxes. If passed in any of the states, a legal battle with the federal government is likely to happen.
Environment / Management	Plastic Shopping Bags	News	10/31/2012	6p, 11p	2
Environmentalists are supporting laws banning plastic shopping bags and asking the public to buy reusable ones. Those bags are better for the environment but may not be better for your health as they may accumulate germs from multiple use and by carrying food. The study shows however that a washing in the washing machine kills the germs and bacteria.

Law Enforcement / Crimes	Online Prostitution		11/13/2012	6p, 11p, 5a, 6a, 12p, 6p	6
It's said that prostitution is the world's oldest profession. For centuries people have been buying and selling sex. These days it's illegal and a growing problem in our area. Many of the prostitutes going through Southern Oregon and Northern California are being pimped out against their will. What was once on the street is now online and in your town, deals made in the dark are now made in the open on web pages anyone can visit. Now the internet is making it easier for the sex trafficking industry to operate. At Medford backpage.com there's no doubt what's for sale and promises of fantasies come true. Backpage is owned by Village Voice Media a company based out of New York, a recent study shows that backpage is the leading online publisher of prostitution ads. How do companies like backpage get away with running ads selling sex? Under the communications act section 230 - It says internet companies like backpage which host third party content aren't held liable for indecent material. In other words, it's not backpage's job to police it's content, it's law enforcement's job.

KTVL News10 and Ray's Food Place teamed up to invite our neighbors to help fill local food pantries to overflowing just when the need was greatest. Local community food banks in Southern Oregon and Northern California will benefit from donations at local Ray's Food Place locations. The Great Food Drive Challenge took place from Monday, October 22 through Tuesday, November 20. Ray's Food Place markets will serve as collection locations for local donations. KTVL viewers and Ray's customers will be able to purchase and donate non-perishable food items while shopping at the Ray's Food Place markets, the most convenient way to help. Collection bins with colorful signage will be displayed at each location. We estimate that over 11,000 pounds of food was donated during this campaign. All of these donations will be used by your local food pantry partner to help insure no one goes hungry this holiday season. During the campaign KTVL featured the Food Drive on newscasts, promotional announcements, and on KTVL.com, our smartphone and iPad apps, and the KTVL Facebook page – people were talking about the drive and about Ray's commitment to help make a difference in their community.

Jackson County / Taxes	Tax Bills	News	12/27/2012	5p, 6p, 11p, 5a, 6a, 12p	6
More than 19,000 people in Jackson County found out this month they under paid on their property taxes. In September, the county figured out it was missing $540,000 from the budget, meaning the 19,000 plus people owed another $28.00 in taxes on average. The county assessment office said they are 80% sure the mistake happened because something was wrong with their software. The computer program calculates the money owed for each property based on home value and factors in every taxing district you belong to. The money problem came down to the software giving too much money to school districts and too little to urban renewal districts. The county did not notice the problem until Seattle Northwest Bonding Company, which was working on the pools measure, helping public works to figure out funding, noticed the problem. While the company was working on the project, workers noticed there had been a mix up in the taxing districts.

10/06/12

48 HOURS: "Friends for Life" - a report about Robyn Davis and Carol "Sissy" Saltzman, best friends for twenty years, who were charged with murder after Robyn's husband, Brian Davis, was found shot to death alongside his car on an isolated road in St. Charles, Louisiana. Brian had married Robyn, his third wife, in 2008, but continued to have an eye for women; Robyn was not happy with his cheating. On June 29, 2009, Brian Davis disappeared. According to Robyn and Sissy, he had left to go boat shopping and never came home. Police soon began to suspect Robyn. Then Sissy, too, came under scrutiny. An examination of their cell phone records convinced police the women were lying. Investigators discovered that Robyn had recently lost her job, had gambling debts, and was on the verge of losing her house. Police believed one or both of the women shot and killed Brian Davis. Three years after the murder, Robyn and Sissy went on trial together. Several jurors expressed in interviews the opinion that investigators hadn't done their jobs and they had trouble with contradictions in Robyn's story. Jurors also learned of a life insurance policy that Robyn tried to cash in just two weeks after Brian's death. The jury vote was eleven for guilty and one for acquittal. In Louisiana, only 10 jurors are needed for a murder conviction: Robyn Davis and Sissy Saltzman are both convicted. They are both serving their time in the same correctional facility and see each other in the jail's church. Onscreen text graphic: Robyn Davis and Sissy Saltzman plan to appeal the verdict. If the appeal is denied, Brian's life insurance, worth $645,000, goes to his family. Brian's former mistress, Fannie Dietz, is back together with her husband, Steve. Interviewed: Robyn Davis and Sissy Saltzman; Fannie Dietz, Brian Davis' mistress; Steve Dietz, her husband; Tony Mancuso, Calcasieu Parish Sheriff; Scott Davis, Brian's brother; Rick Bryant, special prosecutor; Marcy Wilson, a friend of both women; Shane Hinch, Saltzman's attorney; Glen Vamvoras, Robyn Davis' attorney; Jurors Felicia Ballard, Sherry Lusk, Shandrika Washington. 10/13/12

48 HOURS: "Collision Course" - Brittney Brashers, a 21-year-old Air Force member, died while driving home with her ex-boyfriend, Robbie Walters in November, 2009. On the surface, her death seemed like an accident; however, Robbie had walked away from the car crash unscathed, which posed questions to authorities. The Denver, Colorado Police and Detective Troy Bisgard were convinced they had a homicide on their hands and that Robbie was responsible-- but they had no way to prove it. All along, Robbie maintained he was a passenger in the car and told police he didn't know what happened since he was falling asleep because the two of them had been drinking. Medical Examiner John Carver noticed that Brittney's injuries did not seem to come from the car accident when he saw bruising around her temple and upper right cheek. Instead, Carver thought Brittney was hit on her right side and strangled... but he came up short with evidence to prove this was a homicide. A breakthrough in the case occurred when Robbie's wife Elena took a call from Det. Bisgard. Throughout his relationship with Brittney and after Brittney died, Robbie Walters had been married. After Brittney died, and knowing all about their affair, Elena took Robbie back. Elena told Det. Bisgard that she had recorded Robbie confessing to murdering Elena more than a dozen times. Three days after speaking with Elena, Det. Bisgard flew to California where the couple lived and arrested Robbie, charging him with first-degree murder. While awaiting trial, Robbie enlisted a fellow inmate to help him arrange to have Elena killed, but the inmate turned out to be a witness for the prosecution. Robbie was charged with soliciting Elena's murder. At the trial the jury took two days to deliberate and found Robbie guilty of murder. Jurors acquitted Robbie of conspiring to murder Elena. Robbie was sentenced to life without parole. Onscreen text graphic: Elena Walters now lives in an undisclosed location under a new name. Interviewed: Steve Sanchez, 911 caller; Barry Brashers, Brittney's dad; John Brashers, Brittney's brother; Robbie Walters, Brittney's ex-boyfriend; Detective Troy Bisgard; Ret. Master Sgt. Art Figueroa, Brittney's boss; Tiffany Peeples, Brittney's best friend; Brittany Austin-Goyne, Brittney's teammate; Dr. John Carver, Medical Examiner; Elena Walters, Robbie's wife; Phil Geigle and Helen Morgan, Prosecutors; Jonathyn Priest, State Expert. 48 HOURS: "The Preacher's Passion" - Felicia Tang was an actress and model in Hollywood, CA. Her boyfriend, Brian Randone, was an inspirational preacher and one-time reality show contestant. Two months after they met in Las Vegas, Tang was living in Randone's Los Angeles home. After a night of passion, Tang was dead. On the morning of September 11, 2009, Randone summoned police because Tang wasn't breathing. He maintained she overdosed on the drug GHB (Gamma hydroxybutyric), which they both took before going to bed. However, police didn't buy the story. Police believed he beat Tang to death because they counted some 320 bruises, lacerations and abrasions on her body. The medical examiner who did the autopsy on Tang believes the bruising on her face and bite mark on her tongue were a result of Tang's struggle to breathe. Randone was charged with her murder and after prosecutors saw her body, they added another charge: torture. On November 14, 2011, two years after Tang's death, the trial began in a Pasadena courtroom. Prosecutors tried to prove Randone caused Tang's death, but the defense painted Tang as a drug addict and said she died of an overdose. The defense called former San Diego Deputy Medical Examiner Dr. Harry Bonnell to the stand. Dr. Bonnell said homicide is impossible in this case because the PEA (pulseless electrical activity) found in Felicia's body proves it. He went on to tell the jury there is no PEA in smothering victims and the causes of PEA are drugs or blood volume loss. Prosecution was denied the opportunity to rebut Dr. Bonnell's testimony. The jury came up with the verdict of not guilty of torture and not guilty of murder. Jurors, who did not want their names to appear on the episode, claimed Dr. Bonnell's testimony was crucial in declaring Randone not guilty. Several medical examiners "48 HOURS" consulted made clear they would have testified that Dr. Bonnell was incorrect, and PEA is possible in smothering. Onscreen text graphic: Brian Randone is suing various Los Angeles County law enforcement agencies for $21 million for false arrest, wrongful imprisonment, and emotional distress. Interviewed: Brian Randone, Felicia Tang's boyfriend; Detective Richard Doney; Detective Brian Schoonmaker; Christina (no last name), Felicia's best friend; Mike Ferrara, DSport Magazine; Patty and Terry Randone, Brian's parents; Mark Overland, Brian's defense attorney; Trinka Porrata, Ret. LAPD narcotics officer; Dr. Harry Bonnell, Fmr. San Diego Deputy Medical Examiner; Juror 6 and Juror 10, appearing anonymously on camera. 48 HOURS: "Lina's Heart" - Lina Kaufman was a married mother of two when one morning her husband found her in the bathroom, slumped over a magazine rack. Adam Kaufman called 911 and unsuccessfully tried to revive her. Lina's death gripped Aventura, Florida because she was 33-years-old when she died in 2007, and the circumstances around her death were strange. For eighteen months, Adam says he badgered the Dade County, Florida medical examiner's office seeking a conclusive explanation for his wife's death. They thought she may have had an allergic reaction to a spray tan, but in April 2009, Adam was charged with killing his wife by "mechanical asphyxiation". The trial began in May 2012 and the prosecution led the jury to believe the couple had an unhappy marriage, and fought the morning of Lina's death. Adam's defense no longer blamed Lina's death on her spray tan because there wasn't enough evidence to support it, and instead they attacked what they believed to be a botched investigation by the police. There was bruising and abrasions found on Lina's arms and legs and the defense said this was from Lina being moved from room to room by firefighters, and not a struggle with Adam. Moreover the defense said Lina died of natural causes and undiagnosed heart failure, more specifically acute and chronic myocarditis. Adam himself, and Lina's mother, Frida Aizman, both testified about Lina's prior fainting spells. Frida Aizman shared her support and love for Adam while on the stand. After eight hours, the jury reached a verdict of not guilty. Onscreen text graphic: Adam Kaufman plans to write a book about his ordeal. Interviewed: Adam Kaufman, Lina's husband; Seth Kaufman, Adam's twin brother; Elaine Kaufman, Adam's mother; Frida Aizman, Lina's mother; Melissa Fedowitz and Jennifer Ben Sadon, Lina's friends; Kathleen Hoague, prosecutor; Michael Castro, first responder; Kimberly Burk, paramedic; Bill Matthewman, defense attorney; Al Milian, defense attorney; Anna Howell, crime scene technician; Joe Mansfield, prosecutor; Doctors that testified about Lina's heart: Dr. John Stollard, Dr. Bruce Hyma, Dr. Satish Chundru, Dr. John Marraccini, Dr. Michael Baden, Dr. Chester Gwin, and Dr. Erik Mont; Dr. Gregory Davis, medical examiner. 48 HOURS

11/03/12      PREEMPTION

11/10/12      48 HOURS: "Secrets of the River" - Mackenzie Cowell was a high school senior and aspiring model who was studying at a beauty school when she made a dinner date with her father, Reid, in February 2010. Mackenzie never made dinner, and Reid received a call from police saying his daughter's car was found abandoned on a ranch, 40 miles from their home in Wenatchee, Washington. Four days later Mackenzie was found dead along the banks of the Columbia River. She had been strangled, stabbed and beaten. Investigators looked at a list of potential suspects, including her boyfriend, who failed part of a lie-detector test, though he had a solid alibi. They talked to her parents, who had gone through a bitter divorce. And police talked to her mother's boyfriend, with whom she had tangled with in the past. Liz Reid, a police informant, came forward claiming to have seen the actual murder on videotape -- shot by the killers. However as the task force began to investigate this, a tip came in about Chris Wilson, a classmate of Mackenzie's from the Academy of Hair Design. After police linked DNA at the crime scene to Wilson, he was charged with her murder. Wilson claimed he was innocent and his mother hired attorney John Henry Browne. Police dismissed Liz Reid's story after she changed it several times and they did not find a video. When the task force searched the apartment that Wilson lived in during the time of the murder, they found a stain which tested positive for Mackenzie's DNA. Prior to the trial, D.A. Gary Reisen made Wilson an offer -- plead guilty to manslaughter and serve only six-and-half years in prison -- but Wilson turned it down and the trial began. Fearing an unfair trial after the jury questionnaires came back believing Wilson was guilty, Chris Wilson accepted a new plea deal -- fourteen years in prison in exchange for agreeing to these words: "...I also did recklessly cause the death of Mackenzie Cowell by strangulation and by stabbing her with a knife". Chris Wilson believes he was framed by law enforcement. On Screen Graphics: Christopher Wilson may be eligible for release from prison in 2023. He will be 42 years old. Former police informant Liz Reid recently received a scholarship to attend the University of Washington. Interviewed: Reid Cowell, Mackenzie's father; Sandy Francis, Reid's fiancée; Joaquin Villasano, Mackenzie's boyfriend; Detective John Kruse, Wenatchee Police Dept.; Robbin Wagg, Douglas County Chief Deputy; Liz Reid, police informant; Wendy Cowell, Mackenzie's mother; Christopher Wilson, Mackenzie's classmate; Jefferson Robbins, investigative reporter, The Wenatchee World, CBS News consultant; Kathleen Zornes, Wilson's mother; Amelia Savage, Wilson's best friend; John Henry Browne, Wilson's attorney; Emma Scanlon, Wilson's attorney; Gary Reisen, prosecutor; Emmanuel "Buddah" Cerros, accused by Liz Reid of Mackenzie's murder. 48 HOURS (continued)

- 11/17/12      48 HOURS: "Soccer Moms Confidential" (9:00-10:00p) - a report on the investigation of ex-cop turned private eye Chris Butler who staffed his San Francisco Bay area firm with local soccer moms to solve cases. Butler and his firm of private investigator moms became media sensations -- Lifetime Television started a reality show based on the P.I. Moms. Reporter Pete Crooks was invited to write about the real-life "Charlie's Angels", but the story took a strange turn when he learned from a confidential informant that most of the cases were staged, crooked cops were involved, and that Butler was dealing drugs with top California narcotics cop Norm Wielsch. Butler and Wielsch were also running a massage parlor which was allegedly a front for prostitution. On Screen Text Graphics: A trial date has not been set. If convicted, Chris Butler and Norm Wielsch could face up to life in prison on several of the charges. Updated on-screen text graphic for the 11/17/12 rebroadcast: Chris Butler was sentenced to eight years in prison. But he could be released a year early in April 2019. He would be fifty-eight years old. Norm Wielsch is scheduled to go on trial in January 2013. Includes interviews with: Norm Wielsch; Pete Crooks, Senior Editor of Diablo, a pop culture magazine and a CBS News Consultant; Carl Marino, Director of Operations for the agency; Ryan Romano, decoy at the agency; Dr. Phil McGraw, TV Host; Michael Cardoza, Wielsch's attorney; Ami Wiltz, P.I. Mom; Denise Antoon, P.I. Mom; Charnagne Peters, P.I. Mom. (C: Maureen Maher - P: Chuck Stevenson, Peter Shaw, Greg Fisher) (OAD: 02/18/12)
- 11/17/12      48 HOURS: "Highway of Tears" (10:00-11:00p) - A report on the more than twenty girls and women, who since 1969, have disappeared or been killed along the stretch of pavement in rural British Columbia, Canada, known as Highway 16. To locals, the road is now known simply as "The Highway of Tears". Maddy Scott may be one of the roadway's many victims. On May 28, 2012, the 21-year-old went to a party with 50 others at Hogsback Lake, not far from the highway, only to never be seen again. Just six months earlier, in the same town, 15-year-old Loren Leslie's body was found on a logging road not far from Highway 16. Leslie was brutally beaten and molested. There are signs all along Highway 16 warning women not to hitchhike because a killer might be on the loose, but the murders have not ceased. Police arrested 20-year-old Cody Legebokoff in Leslie's murder. A patrolman pulled him over, thinking he was poaching game. He had Leslie's ID in his truck. Her body was just down the road. Legebokoff has since been identified as the alleged killer of three others, though police have not revealed how they've connected him to the murders that occurred in 2009 and 2010. Still, because of his age, police know Legebokoff couldn't be responsible for all of the murders along Highway 16. Just two months ago, officials at the Royal Canadian Mounted Police (RCMP) got a break in some cases because they linked DNA samples from one of the highway's victims, Colleen MacMillen, found murdered in 1974, to Bobby Jack Fowler. Police also believe Fowler, a Texas native who worked as a roofer in Prince George, may have killed as many as twenty people in the United States and Canada. Victims of Highway 16 mentioned in this broadcast: Alberta Williams, Delphine Nikal, Lana Derrick, Monica Ignas, Monica Jack, Ramona Wilson, Tamara Chipman, Gail Weys, Pamela Darlington. On Screen Graphics: Cody Legebokoff, accused of murdering Loren Leslie and three other women, is expected to stand trial in September 2013. Investigators believe Bobby Jack Fowler may have killed as many as 20 people across the United States and Canada. Interviewed: Dawn and Eldon Scott, Parents of Madison (Maddy) Scott; Bob Friel, investigative reporter, Outside magazine, CBS News consultant; Sgt. Ken Floyd and Constable Tom Wamstecker, Royal Canadian Mounted Police; Amanda Fitzpatrick, Jasmine Klassen and Jordy Bolduc, Maddy's friends; Doug and Donna Leslie, parents of Loren Leslie; Charleine Laing, Loren's friend; Garrett Anatole, Cody's friend; Sgt. Wayne Clary, RCMP; Claudia Williams, Alberta's sister; Matilda Wilson, Ramona's mother; Tom Chipman, Tamara's father; Kevin and Shawn MacMillen, Colleen's brothers; Ron Benson, Investigator. 48 HOURS (continued)

11/24/12

48 HOURS: "Presumed Guilty" - a report on the nearly thirty year effort of Frank O'Connell and his son Nick, to overturn his conviction for the 1984 murder of Jay French in Pasadena, California. French was the ex-husband of Jeanne, a woman O'Connell had dated for a short time months before. French and his ex-wife, Jeanne, had a bitter custody dispute over their son. Police maintained O'Connell shot French to help Jeanne. O'Connell said he was thirty miles away and had witnesses to prove it. On his attorney's advice, O'Connell waived his right to a jury trial putting his fate in the hands of a judge. He gambled wrong and was sentenced to 25 years-to-life in prison. He filed four separate appeals between 1986 and 1995, and all were denied. Then he reached out to Centurion Ministries, a non-profit organization dedicated to overturning wrongful convictions. Finally in 1998, Centurion Ministries sent Frank a letter accepting his case. Kate Germond, Director of Centurion Ministries, knew the eyewitness to the shooting, neighbor Dan Druecker, was the strongest part of the state's case against Frank. After Kate asked Dan to read the police files from the case, he decided to officially recant his testimony with a declaration in September 2008. This reversal convinced the judge to reopen the case against O'Connell, granting access to the entire file left behind by the detectives in 1985. Centurion discovered notes in the file revealing there was another witness who was not certain about their identification of O'Connell, much like Dan. By withholding these notes, detectives violated a 1963 Supreme Court ruling: authorities must reveal any evidence that could change the outcome of a trial. A judge recognized these actions and the ruling of Frank's conviction was overturned. The 1985 conviction would remain overturned, but the original murder charges against O'Connell were not dropped. Frank was out on bail for 30 days until the next hearing where the District Attorney's Office was unable to present enough evidence against O'Connell; the case was dismissed. Frank can still be arrested and retried if they do come up with new evidence. On Screen Graphics: Frank O'Connell is the 49th person freed by the work of Centurion Ministries. Interviewed: Lt. Dave Dolson and Detective Steve Lankford, LA County Sheriff's Department; Frank O'Connell, defendant; Nick O'Connell, Frank's son; Daniel Druecker, Jay French's neighbor; Gina French, Jay's widow; Rosemarie O'Connell, Frank's mother; Kate Germond, Director of Centurion Ministries; Dr. Robert Shomer, expert on eyewitness testimony; Juan Mejia, Assistant District Attorney; Jolene French, Jay's sister. 48 HOURS: "The Hunt for Mr. Wright" - a report on George Wright, who was sentenced to prison for the 1962 murder of New Jersey service station owner Walter Patterson, and who after spending 8 years in prison, escaped, and spent 40 years on the run from the authorities. This report follows a five-decade search of the task force comprised of the FBI, U.S. Marshals and New Jersey Department of Corrections officers as they searched the world for him, and Ann Patterson's fight to bring her father's killer to justice. In 1962, George Wright and Walter McGhee pleaded no contest to the murder of Walter Patterson, who was beaten and shot during a robbery at his Wall Township, NJ, Esso station. McGhee got life because the fatal bullet matched his gun; Wright got 15-30 years. Eight years later, George Wright escaped from jail. In 1972, dressed as a priest, Wright smuggled a gun on an airplane as part of an elaborate hijack plot to hijack the airplane with members of a black militant movement. They demanded $1 million, one of the largest ransoms for a hijacking at that time. The hijackers also wanted a flight to Algeria, which they got, and George Wright disappeared again. He successfully dodged authorities and drifted around France, Germany and Portugal, until he found the perfect place to hide, the tiny west African country of Guinea Bissau. And unbelievably, he did good deeds and helped the poor while there, marrying the daughter of an influential Portuguese general and fathering two children. To many, his criminal past was an open secret. He lived there 13 years, eventually getting citizenship under an assumed name, Jose Luis Jorge Dos Santos. After almost 50 years, the task force hit paydirt and in 2011, George Wright was cornered in a Lisbon cafe. But the victory was short-lived: Portuguese authorities dismissed the U.S. demand for extradition, claiming that despite his phony identification, Wright was a Portuguese citizen and they were not obligated to turn him over. Last summer, with no obvious way to bring him to justice, the Patterson family made an appeal on Capitol Hill for help. And now, it seems that George Wright has disappeared again. On-screen text graphic: The Justice Department says it did not pursue further appeals in this case. Interviewed: Ann Patterson and her daughters Jackie and Terry; R. J. Gallagher, retired FBI agent; Dan Klotz, U.S. Marshall; Rick Cope, NJ Department of Corrections; Walter McGhee, accomplice; Mike Finkel, GQ magazine writer, who interviewed George Wright, who is heard on tape from the interview; Capt. William May, pilot of hijacked Delta Airlines flight; Elaine Ottevaere, passenger on hijacked plane; Curtis Reed, Guinea Bisseau aid worker; Hannes Stegemann and Pedro Dalman, both who knew Wright in Guinea Bisseau; John Blacken, former U.S. Ambassador to Guinea Bisseau (1986-1989); Jonathan Winer, former State Department official. 48 HOURS: "Everything to Lose" - a report on the murder of Dana Clair Edwards and the story of Edwards' mother, Deborah Edwards, who believing the alleged killer, Dana's ex-boyfriend, Jon Thomas Ford (also referred to as Thomas Ford) was actually guilty, tormented him with notes and emails marking anniversaries, birthdays and holidays; each note including a reference to her daughter. Dana Clair Edwards was found dead in her home in San Antonio, Texas just after New Year's 2009. She was last seen alive leaving a New Year's Eve party just after midnight. Police believed the killer had also murdered her beloved rescue dog, Grit, and dumped his lifeless body two miles from the crime scene. Police interviewed friends and acquaintances, including John Thomas Ford. Though no longer a couple, they each attended the same New Year's Eve party. Prosecutors soon believed that he was their main suspect, but the investigation dragged on and Ford remained a free man. Deborah Edwards became frustrated with the pace of the investigation and started writing to Ford. She sent the notes for months. Finally, a year after the murder, a break occurred in the case and Ford was arrested on murder charges. There were many mistakes made in the investigation, including lost surveillance footage and evidence, but prosecutors believed they could get a conviction despite Ford having hired a famed defense attorney: Dick Deguerin. In fact, one of the prosecutors was a former student of Deguerin. The trial commenced and prosecutors were at first worried, but they used cell phone records to map his movements and dispute his alibi. He was found guilty. On-screen text graphic: Thomas Ford is appealing his conviction. He will be eligible for parole in twenty years. The remains of Dana Clair and Grit were laid to rest one month after the conclusion of the trial. Interviewed: Darrell J. Edwards and Deborah Edwards (parents of Dana Clair Edwards); Tammy Treascher, Darrel J. Edwards girlfriend; Cornelia Sawatzky, close friend of Edwards; William McManus, Police Chief; Catherine Babbitt, prosecutor; Kirsta Melton and Kathy Cunningham, co-prosecution counsels; Not interviewed: Dick Deguerin. - 12/22/12      48 HOURS: "Mystery on Twin Peaks Drive" - a report on the December 16, 1998 death of Ronda Reynolds, whose husband found her lifeless body with a gunshot wound to the head in her home on Twin Peaks Drive in Toledo, Washington. The death was quickly ruled a suicide. Refusing to accept the findings, Ronda's mother, Barb Thompson, launched her own investigation. She enlisted the help of world-famous true crime writer Ann Rule, who eventually wrote the bestseller "In the Still of the Night", about the case. Their investigation led Washington State authorities to revisit the case by holding a coroner's inquest -- a rare and unusual proceeding -- to determine the cause of death and who might be responsible. The inquest resulted in the death being reclassified as a homicide and it determined that she had died at the hands of either her husband Ronald A. Reynolds and/or Ronald's son, Jonathan A. Reynolds. However, the Lewis County prosecutor announced he would not prosecute either man because most of the evidence had been destroyed after Ronda's death. The case remains an open investigation. On Screen Text graphic: The Reynolds family is contemplating suing Barb Thompson, Ann Rule and the Lewis County Coroner. Changes were proposed to Washington State's law following the Reynold's case. 48 HOURS: "The Stranger Beside Me" - On March 18, 2010, Jamie Laiaddee vanished from her home in a suburb of Phoenix, Arizona. Her live-in boyfriend Bryan Stewart told everyone she had moved to Denver, Colorado to take a new job. When detectives started searching for Jamie, they discovered Bryan was a con man, and suspected he was also her killer. Jamie and Bryan met through a University of Michigan Alumni Club, and dated for more than two years. Bryan lied to Jamie about most of his life. His real name was Rick Wayne Valentini; he never attended the University of Michigan; he served two years in military prison; and he had three ex-wives and two daughters. When detectives searched Bryan/Rick's apartment they found Jamie's wallet and a small white envelope containing Jamie's driver's license, some credit cards, and her University of Michigan Alumni card, cut up into pieces. Moreover, Bryan/Rick was using her credit cards for online dating websites. He continued to claim Jamie took $100,000 and moved to Colorado for a new job, but this claim was dismissed after Jamie's new boss showed up in court detailing how he had just hired Jamie - in Arizona. A jailhouse snitch took the stand and said Bryan/Rick told him that the police knew he killed Jamie. Bryan/Rick testified last and claimed he and Jamie communicated via e-mail and telephone after her disappearance, but the prosecution forced him to admit he had not seen or spoken to her. On March 24, 2011, a Grand Jury indicted Bryan/Rick on charges of second-degree murder of his girlfriend, Jamie Laiaddee. He was also charged with fraud for using her credit cards without her permission. On-Screen Graphics: Bryan Stewart is now inmate 268586 and is known to his jailers as Rick Wayne Valentini. His sentence for murder and fraud: 54 years. On screen text graphic for the 12/29/12 rebroadcast: Bryan Stewart is now inmate 268586 and is known to his jailers as Rick Wayne Valentini.
